JOBS

It will soon be possible to promote your vacancies on our aviation platform as well. Through Up in the Sky, your company can easily reach up to 1.000.000 aviation professionals and enthusiasts, thereby making it much easier for you to find the candidate that you've been looking for.

In the first place, your vacancies will be published on our soon to be launched job platform: Job in the Sky. These vacancies will always be promoted on Job in the Sky's social media channels, including Facebook, Instagram and LinkedIn, as well as its newsletters.
